

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A dialogue support system for supporting the occurrence of a dialogue in a place designated as a dialogue place, which comprises a dialogue condition accumulation section for accumulating a dialogue condition containing the designation of a desired situation and
5 the designation of a destination, a situation detection device, which is disposed in the dialogue place, for detecting a situation of the dialogue place, a situation monitoring section for comparing the situation of the dialogue place detected by the situation detection device and the dialogue condition accumulated in the dialogue condition accumulation section to judge whether the detected situation conforms to the dialogue condition, and a
10 notification section for notifying a designated destination that the situation conforming to the dialogue condition has occurred when it is judged by the situation monitoring section that the situation conforms to the dialogue condition.